The winners of T&C's Hotel Awards in the April 2024 issue are organized into six categories: wilderness, city, country, beachside, minimalist, and high-design. For the full list, see T&C Hotel Awards 2024: The Best-Looking New Hotels on the Planet.

Raffles, Boston

A suite living room at Raffles Boston.

If Paul Revere thought British troop movements in Boston were worth yelling about, what would he make of the arrival of Raffles? The Revolutionary War hero's work with copper serves as design inspiration for the Singapore-originated brand's first hotel in North America—as do other Bostonian icons, including the city's park system, known as the Emerald Necklace. The hushed guest rooms provide a sense of calm in bustling Back Bay, whereas the buzzy public spaces have more razzle dazzle.
